Tucker Mountain Snowcat Access is the closest thing to a backcountry experience you'll find in-bounds. Tucker Mountain can be accessed by hiking the West Ridge or Copper Bowl, or by catching a ride in the Free Snowcat. The Cat runs from 10:00 am to 1:30 pm, Friday through Sunday. The Cat picks up guests above the base of Mountain Chief Chairlift. There are expedited wait times for guests wearing avalanche beacons. Conditions and terrain openings may vary and are subject to changes. For more details about snow conditions please visit www.CopperColorado.com/snowreport.
